

Job Application Guidelines

This information is designed to assist you with your application for applying for a role within the Teachers Registration Board of South Australia (TRB).

Selection and Engagement

Selection and engagement processes within the TRB are guided by the Public Sector Act 2009 and are based on the merit of applicants' abilities, aptitudes, skills, qualifications, knowledge, experience, and personal qualities as listed in the Essential Minimum Requirements and Desirable Characteristics of the Role Description.

The TRB is an Equal Opportunity Employer where your application will be considered on a proper assessment of merit regardless of race, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability or age.

Before you commence your application

- Read the Role Description thoroughly
- Contact the Enquiries Person should you have any questions or wish to gain further information about the role
- Access relevant internet sites

Eligibility

Australian citizens, permanent residents and non-Australian citizens are eligible to apply. If you are a visa holder - whether it be temporary, provisional or permanent - it must be valid and permit you to work in Australia.

Applicants can check their work rights using the visa entitlement verification online \(VEVO\).

Employees who have separated/whose employment terminated upon resignation as part of a TVSP seeking reemployment in the public sector.

Employees who have received a TVSP and as a condition resign their employment in the South Australian Public Sector, are not entitled to seek employment or be employed in the South Australian Public Sector (as broadly defined in the Guidelines) for a period that coincides with the number of weeks of the payment to them as part of the TVSP, unless they repay to the Crown a sum equivalent to the number of weeks' pay or part of a week remaining in the nominal period by reference to the number of weeks' remuneration paid to them upon termination.

https://www.treasury.sa.gov.au/Our-services/resources/2022-VSPGuidelines_SalariedEA.pdf

Job Application

Your application must consist of ALL the following essential components:

1) A covering letter of application

- Make clear the title of the role and include the vacancy number

2) A Curriculum Vitae or Resume (Should contain the following information)

- Name and address
- Contact details (i.e. home / mobile / work phone number, email address)
- Educational details

- Employment history (displaying most recent job first and working backwards)
- Relevant experience / studies
- Professional and personal development activities
- Significant achievements
- Three current referees (include their position title, address and contact details)

3) An application response that provides relevant examples demonstrating how you meet the Essential Minimum Requirements as outlined in the role description.

4) Evidence of the following Essential Qualification Requirements (original documents may need to be presented at interview)

Appropriate qualifications and/or extensive experience in advanced investigation and regulatory compliance techniques and procedures.

Important Information:

The Selection Panellist are not responsible to follow-up or to further consider incomplete, inadequate, and/ or late applications.

The successful applicant is required to gain a Department of Human Services (DHS) working with children check (WWCC) prior to being employed which is required to be renewed every five years before expiry. A current DHS child-related employment screening will be recognised as a WWCC until it expires. For all other Special Conditions please refer to the Role Description.