

ADVICE TO APPLICANTS

THIS INFORMATION IS DESIGNED TO ASSIST WITH YOUR APPLICATION FOR A ROLE WITH THE DEPARTMENT FOR CORRECTIONAL SERVICES (DCS)

We welcome your interest in this role. Please read on to maximise your chances of success.

Before you start your Application

Carefully read the position's Job and Person Specification. Feel free to speak with the contact officer about the position, and ask questions or request further relevant information.

Eligibility

Please note that an applicant for an ongoing position must be an Australian citizen or have permanent residency status. An applicant for a contract position must be an Australian citizen or have a visa which allows them to work in Australia for the period of the contract. Evidence will need to be provided to confirm the current status. Further information about eligibility to work in Australia may be found on the Department of Home Affairs website at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au> and the Immigration SA website at <http://www.migration.sa.gov.au>.

DCS is not able to offer employment to someone who has accepted a voluntary or targeted separation package (VSP or TVSP) from a South Australian public sector agency until their 'Employment Exclusion Period' has expired. You should contact the nominated contact officer (listed in the job advertisement) if you have any questions regarding your eligibility to apply.

Under Section 65 of the Public Sector Act 2009, candidates registered with a Disability Employment Service (DES) provider can apply for all government internal vacancies, even if they are not currently employed in the public sector. For information on DES providers: <https://www.jobaccess.gov.au/people-with-disability/available-support/1631>.

Recruitment and Selection in DCS

Selection and employment procedures in DCS are guided by the Public Sector Act 2009 and guidelines of the South Australian Commissioner for Public Sector Employment. The Government of South Australia is an equal opportunity employer.

All selection decisions are free from discrimination or favouritism. They are based on an assessment of the merit of applicants' educational/vocational qualifications, personal abilities/aptitude/skills, knowledge and experience. Potential for development could also be considered.

Re-selecting from a Recent Selection Process

If another vacancy arises that is similar in nature and the delegate feels that advertising would attract a similar pool of applicants, an order of merit appointment may be applied without the need for further advertising.

The Job and Person Specification

The role is described in the job and person specification. The Role Statement contains information about:

- the location of the role within DCS
- the role's functions
- the reporting and working relationships
- any special conditions associated with the role
- the outcomes, duties and responsibilities expected to be achieved by the person performing the role
