

SOUTH
AUSTRALIAN
EMPLOYMENT
TRIBUNAL

Commissioner

The Attorney-General, Hon. Kyam Mayer, MLC, is calling for expressions of interest from high calibre candidates for the role of Commissioner of the South Australian Employment Tribunal (SAET). Applicants should be a legal practitioner of at least 5 years' standing or have extensive knowledge, expertise or experience in workers compensation law. There are currently 2 full-time vacancies.

SAET is an independent, accessible tribunal and court for responding to and resolving employment related disputes quickly, that operates with minimal formality and cost, while promoting the best principles of decision-making.

Commissioners are responsible for conducting compulsory conciliation conferences and where appropriate, hearings, in accordance with the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014, Return to Work Act 2014, and other referring Acts.

A Commissioner may be appointed on a full time, part-time or sessional basis.

To be successful you will have impeccable personal integrity, a demonstrated commitment to fairness, understanding of diversity issues and excellent dispute resolution skills. You must have the ability to work in a high-volume and complex case-driven work environment and to resolve and determine disputes within limited timeframes and using SAET's electronic case management system.

The recruitment process will also have regard to an appointment that reflects a diversity of experiences, including exposure to both employee and employer interests.
